The report of the Investigating Committee on the Lunatic Asylum was submitted (not read) and 2000 copies ordered printed.

In Assembly, Mr. Colley moved to reconsider the vote of Saturday passing a bill relative to recording town plats, and to table the motion. Carried, the mover stating that he had received information to the effect that there was something wrong about the bill.

Mr. Cobb made his minority Report from the Judiciary Committee, on the subject of the law relating to the use of the jails of the state, in Fugitive Slave cases. The principal point urged in the Report is that such a law is unnecessary, since the Courts have decided the Fugitive Slave Law is unconstitutional.

Mr Colley, from the Printing Committee, reported against committing the compilation of the History of the state by Wm R. Smith.

And then followed the Report of the Joint Select Committee on the State Lunatic Asylum read by Mr. P. H. Smith in his place. I have already sent a brief sketch of it, and, as we shall have it printed in some of the papers to-morrow, in all probability, I omit writing out the very full notes which I have taken. The Report was listened to very attentively by the members and by many who filled the gallery, and when the reading was concluded, there were not, I truly believe, six men in the House who were not ready to vote for the bill reported by the Committee, which provides for winding the whole thing from the State books at once. Probably it would be well to have Gen. Smith write the History of the State Lunatic Asylum, and argue the Commissioners' side of the question.

The Report is a very able and interesting one, and it will be, and ought to be, carefully read through by every voter in the State.

The minority Report was a thorough refutation of the argument of one of Mr. Proudfit's counsel.

The Temperance Bill was amended by the Senate, was taken up and read.

Mr. P. H. Smith moved to strike out sec. 10, of June; to search and seizure.

In support of the motion he said that the constituency he had the honor to represent, had voted largely in favor of a prohibitory law, and that he were anxious to carry out their views upon the, as well as all other proper subjects of legislation. That when the bill was in the House, for the first time, he voted against the same, on its final passage, for reasons that were then given and well known to all. The Bill has come back from the Senate, entirely remodelled and in the substitute much more respect has been paid to the King's English, than in the bill sent to them by this House. As the Bill first passed the Assembly, many portions of it were vague, indefinite and uncertain. He further stated that he made this motion in good faith, in order that the bill might be stripped of its worst feature, and made equal and just in its operations. With the bill, as it is, the penalty in one case, would be twenty-five dollars, and in another for the same offence, it might be ten thousand dollars.

He thought it would be much better for the cause of Temperance, if this section of the bill was stricken out, or if it suffered to remain that it should be materially modified. The motion was lost 26 to 36.

Mr. Woodworth moved to add to the exception in favor of beer, native wine and cider, "any other kind of liquor manufactured in this state"—lost 21 to 41.

Mr. Marvin moved to amend by providing that liquors seized should be sold to agents, and not destroyed—lost.

The vote was then taken on concurring with the Senate in their substitute, and resulted as follows:

AYES—Abbott, Allen, Adams, Bond, Cary, Colley Cole, Davis, Field, Fuller, Gary W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Hollenbeck, Hooper, Howard, Hull, Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee Lowe, McIndoe, Mosher, Pratt, Randall, Rose, P. H. Smith, Stevens, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Townsend, Tuplff, Vinas, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitty, White, Sholes—41.

NOES—Barnes, Bennett, Bingar, Boyd, Dawon, Ebbets, Falvey, Gibb, Goss, Hull, Lavis, Mosscontz, Ramsay, Ribble, Rogan, Schwefel, Scheppe, B. Smith Thompson, VanNorstrand, Vilas, Williston—22.

So the bill is passed. It will be seen that a majority voted for the bill in its present shape who voted against it before.

There was some discussion as to the proper course to be taken relative to printing the Lunatic Asylum Report, and finally the matter was referred to a select committee to inquire as to the time necessary for the printing.

In the afternoon, the amendments of the Senate to the bill for the purchase of Webster's Dictionary for the school districts out of the school library money, were concurred in, much to the disgust of Mr. Stevens, who opposed the bill by all parliamentary means.

Mr. McIndoe, from the Railroad Committee, reported against a general railroad law.

Bills Passed:

Repealing Chap. 128 local laws of '53, relative to a boom on Menomonee river.

Authorizing school district in Exeter to levy a tax.

Authorizing Milwaukee Common Council to levy a tax, 2d Ward.

Amending a state road law.

Charter of Jamestown Mining Co.

Authorizing collection of delinquent tax of '54 in Polk Co.

Relative to the rights of married women.

Authorizing a dam on Sugar river.

Authorizing the Superintendent to furnish blank to school districts.

Providing for method of paying tax on suits in Circuit Courts.

The bill prohibiting the use of jails in Fugitive Slave cases, came up on its 3d reading. Mr. Hull moved to postpone indefinitely. Lost, 9 to 39; and then followed, on the part of Mr. Hull, supported by the small minority, a series of motions for delay, which kept the Assembly for a long time; the "back bone" of the "Shanghais" rapidly stiffening, and members expressing the determination to sit all night, if it were necessary. Mr. Rose (dem.) took occasion to say that if this sort of factious conduct was democracy, then he was no democrat. He did not see the propriety of thus delaying the Assembly, on the 3d reading of the bill, when members would have an opportunity to place themselves on record on the first passage. At length, Mr. Gary, at a favorable opportunity, moved the previous question, which was sustained, and the bill was ordered to its 3d reading, by a vote of 42 to 14. Messrs. Gibb, Rogan, Rose, W. R Taylor, VanNorstrand, and Vilas, (democrats,) and Mr. Randall (Ind.) voted with the Republicans in favor. The Noes were Messrs. Barns, Bond, Boyd, Falvey, Hollenbeck Hull, Lavis, Martin, Moscowitz, Schwefel, B. Smith, Stevens, Thompson, and White—all democrats, except Mr. Hollenbeck, who in some matters, to use a common term here, is not fully "feathered out" and Mr. Thompson, who is utterly incomprehensible.

We have had posted on the doors to-day notices to the effect that bills on the Germania and Oshkosh City Banks will be redeemed at par at the Comptroller's Office—a testimony, at the same time, of the good management of that Officer, and of the admirable provisions of the Banking law of our State.

The train due at 1 P. M. is not yet (7½ P. M.) arrived—doubtless fast in the snow-drifts.

W. H. W.

Madison, March 20.

To use an expressive phrase, originnal with the "Wisconsin Bard" or some one else, "Times ain't now as they used to was been,"—and the ordinary routine of state road and ferry bills, Academy charters, and mail route memorials, have given way for more important matters.—Hereforward I must content myself with noting briefly the most important action of the two Houses.

In the Senate this morning, the only debate of any considerable length was upon the bill appropriating money to Rufus King & Co., for the purchase of Supreme Court Reports. The bill under consideration was the substitute reported by Judge Dunn providing for their purchase, the two volumes bringing the cases down to the December term of 1854. The vote on the passage was as follows:

AYES—Adams, Bashford, Bowen, Clement, Gibson, Gill, Giles, Hadley, Harvey, Loy, Paddock, Rolfe, Taylor, West, Worthington—14.

NOES—Dewey, Ellridge, Kelsey, Raymert.

The Senate substituted for the Assembly bill carrying off the appropriation to the State Agricultural Society, a bill postponing the payment of the $3000 till a month later than is provided by the present law.

Mr. Bowen introduced a bill repealing the law which allows of the picking up of a Sheriffs jury to try issues where parties are the State.

In Assembly, there was a petition from Delafield praying the Legislature to repudiate the Lunatic Asylum Contract.

Among the bills introduced, was one to repeal the law authorizing the appointment of a State Geologist. Also one increasing and defining the powers of Milwaukee County Court.

Among the Reports was a remarkable one from Mr. Judson, being against the passage of a bill concerning the draining of lands. I mention it as being the first report since the beginning of the session which recognizes the propriety of obeying the Constitutional provision relative to special legislation.

After hearing the report of Mr. Van Nostrand from Select Committee, to the effect that the Lunatic Asylum Committee Report cannot be printed before Monday night next, the Assembly ordered 1000 copies of the State Printer, and 75 copies for each member of the daily papers containing the Report.

The bill prohibiting the use of the jails of this State in Fugitive Slave cases, passed by the following decisive vote:

Ayes; Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bennett, Cary, Chase, Colley, Davis, Field, Fuller, Gary, Gibb, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington Hooper Howard, Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee Lowe, McIndoe, Mosher Pratt, Randall, Rose, P. H. Smith, Stevens, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Townsend, Tuplff, Vinas, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitty, White, Sholes—41.

NOES—Barnes, Bennett, Bingar, Boyd, Dawon, Ebbets, Falvey, Gibb, Goss, Hull, Lavis, Moscowitz, Ramsay, Ribble, Rogan, Schwefel Schoppe B. Smith Thompson, VanNorstrand, Vilas, Williston—22.

So the bill is passed. It will be seen that a majority voted for the bill in its present shape who voted against it before.

There was some discussion as to the proper course to be taken relative to printing the Lunatic Asylum Report, and finally the matter was referred to a select committee to inquire as to the time necessary for the printing.

In the afternoon, the amendments of the Senate to the bill for the purchase of Webster's Dictionary for the school districts out of the school library money, were concurred in, much to the disgust of Mr. Stevens, who opposed the bill by all parliamentary means.

Mr. McIndoe, from the Railroad Committee, reported against a general railroad law.

Mr. Hull felt called upon to say a word on his own behalf, and for the members of the last Legislature who had voted for the Asylum Law, and he appealed to the Chairman (Mr. Colley) and the others who were here last winter, if they had not all voted for it, in direct reference to the Report of the Senate Committee, which placed the expense at $22,300. He had supposed the sum might reach $50,000, and that this sum could be properly expended for the purpose. He would not say how the Commissioners had carried the thing up to such an enormous expense, whether by fraud, incompetence, or negligence, but, however it might be, he would not defend the wrong. He fully indorsed the Committee's Report as to the intentions of the last Legislature.

Mr. Randall expressed his gratification at this honorable testimony to the justice of the Report.

Mr. O'Neill concurred with Mr. Hull as to the intentions of the last Legislature, but he thought that a little time might properly be taken to consider this bill.

After coming into the House from Committee, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Davis, and the bill passed, by the following vote:

AYES—Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bennett, Bond, Boyd, Chase, Cole, Colley, Davis, DeWolf, Downs, Field, Filer, Gary, Gibb, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Hollenbeck, Hooper, Howard, Hull, Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lavis, Lee, Lowe, Martin, McIndoe, Merrill, Moscowitz, Mosher, O'Neill, Pratt, Ramsey, Randall, Rose, Sherman, P. H. Smith, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Thompson, Townsend, Tuplff, VanNostrand, Vilas, Virgin, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitty, White, Williston, Sholes (Speaker)—57.

NOES—Barns, Blaizer, Bond, Ebbetts, Falvey, Goss, B. Smith—6.

Messrs. Stevens and Vliet were excused from voting, on the plea that they were unable to vote "understandingly," to use a common phrase. A motion to reconsider was made by Mr. Bennett, and lost.

After the transaction of some other business, among which was the striking out of the enacting clause of a bill providing for the continuation of the compilation of the Documentary History by Gen. Smith, and serving a General Rail Road Law the same way,—there came up a matter which caused considerable feeling.

The Commissioners of the State Lunatic Asylum sent in a Communication which charged the Joint Committee of Investigation with wantonly misrepresenting them, and that their Report was a "tissue of falsehoods," with other severe charges and harsh language On its being read, Mr. Hull immediately moved to refer it to the Committee, but Judge Vilas remonstrated against such a reference, and proceeded, in a state of considerable feeling, to urge upon the Assembly that some just disposition should be made of the paper, if it was received at all, and spread upon the Journal. Either the charges of the Commissioners were true, in which case the members of the Joint Committee ought to be expelled from the Legislature; or they were not true, in which case the paper was an insult to the Committee and the Assembly, and a contempt, which should be properly treated.

Mr. P. H. Smith said that if the gentleman from Dane had had as much to do with the Commissioners as he had, he would not easily become excited by any such charges. Those Commissioners, as one instance, had in their official Report, under their official oaths, declared that they had an estimate made by a competent architect of the cost of the Asylum building, at $67,743, and yet, severally being sworn, testified that they had no such estimate made. Persons who stood in that position were not likely to disturb the feelings of the Committee. The Committee were unanimous as to the facts stated in the Report, though Messrs. Goss and Howell differed from the rest as to the binding character of the contract.

Mr. Goss said that there could be but one opinion among the Committee as to the general statements and scope of the Report. He did not wish, by his vote of this morning against repealing the law of last winter, to be understood as apologizing for the Commissioners. He did not find against them charges of fraud, but their own testimony showed incompetency, impudence and inconsiderateness.

Mr. Stevens moved to adjourn, saying that he hoped the House would act coolly. He had seen for some time past that the members acted under excitement when the names of certain persons were mentioned here. The motion failed by a large vote.

Mr. Gary said that the communication was unworthy of consideration—that it was, only differing in tone its, another attempt at delay, so many of which had already been made during the session. The charges against the Committee were of the same nature as had been made on a former occasion, and had been utterly denied and refuted by each member of the committee, rising in his place. If the Commissioners desire any favor of the House, they know enough to send a respectful communication. He hoped the question would be taken on receiving the paper.

The Speaker put the question—"Shall the communication be received," and, for a space, a dead silence reigned—not a man voting Aye, while the Noes were full and emphatic, all over the House.

And so the Assembly adjourned, members feeling and expressing, in their various modes of expressing—Quem Deus vult perdere, prius dementat.

Annexation of Russian American—Perhaps.

A singular piece of diplomatic news appears in the London papers, received by the Pacifics under the head of telegraphic advice from Vienna, respecting the Russian Possessions in North America. It is to this effect:

Vienna, Saturday 9 A. M.

According to the local papers, the Russian General Manuscriff, who has recently arrived at Brussels, is the bearer of the cession of the Russian Possessions in North America to the United States for $30,000,000.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—There is, to my mind, as much difference between letting a house, or hiring one, as there is between the words landlord and tenant—indeed, as much as between selling and purchasing. It is the landlord who lets, or lets the house, and the tenant who hires, or rents it.—Yet, how common here in the West, to see in our papers advertisements like the following:—FOR RENT—To RENT, on the part of those who have tenements to let.

But the greatest of all blunders of this character is one you may see in the Wisconsin, as follows: "TO ANY ONE HAVING A HOUSE TO RENT. WANTED TO RENT, a modern built dwelling house" &c. Here the landlord and tenant are confounded, and both the person who has a house to let and the one who is supposed to want to hire, are represented as wanting the same thing under the word RENT—that is to say, the person who lets the house "rents" it, and the person who rents it, also "rents" it!

I know no other excuse (among people who ought to know better) than that which can be rendered by those who spell Milwaukie, Milwaukee, (do not flinch, Messrs. Editors,) and that is the same which was rendered by one of Cromwell's followers, after his appointment of justice of the peace in Ireland, as follows: How do you suppose a man can spell correctly with a quill plucked from an Irish goose?

According to this logic, all of you who spell Milwaukie in the way printed at the head of our papers, I fear have been spelling with quills plucked from Irish geese; and so I will continue to think until you return to the former and only correct way of spelling it.

MILWAUKIE.

INTERESTING FROM MACKINAC.—Through the courtesy of Mr. Saltonstall of this city, we have seen shown a letter from Mackinac, dated March 14th, and containing some information of interest to our shipping community. The winter at that point has been very severe; the ice in the lake is from ten to twenty inches thick and not a particle of water is to be seen in the straits as far as the eye can reach. The mail carriers say that there is no water to be seen between Mackinac and Saginaw. This is a poor prospect for early navigation. The weather, however, at the date of the letter, was mild and the ice was thawing a little Provisions were becoming rather scarce, and the letter writer yearned after the flesh pots of Egypt. There is scarcely anything to eat except fish, and every Frenchman in town had Gilla.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

A COMPREHENSIVE RETURN.—Our friends the Post masters in New Hampshire, have generally been very prompt and obliging in returning our circulars, with the blanks for election results properly filled. Yet we must especially praise the succinct and graphic return made by the Postmaster of Exeter. In the ardor of his "pluribus," which we can easily imagine to have been immense, he disdained to express his idea of the terrific rout of his party in paltry numerals, but concentrated the whole in this burning sentence: "EVERYTHING GONE TO THE D——L!" Those comprehensive words express everything necessary, and though calculated for the meridian of Exeter, they will answer for several of the adjacent towns.—[Boston Atlas.

BY THE RIVULET.

SECOND VERSION.

I sat me down beside the brook,
Beneath the over-hanging trees,
And said, as some wild flowers I took,
"I'll deck my raven locks with these;

For, haply he may come this way,
Nearer and cooler, too, it is;
Yet if he speaks, what shall I say?
I hope there is no sin in this!"

Just then a timid wood dove flew
With noiseless wing, and in a pool
Dipt its fine beck of changing hue;
Companionless—yet beautiful.

I almost wept to see it so;
But soon 'mong twinkling shadows faint
It rose, and from a stately ash
Pour'd forth a low and sweet complaint.

The grape vine clinging to the tree—
The song of sorrow from the bird—
The streamlet hastening to the sea—
Did so with my poor heart accord,

That ere I heard his steps he stood
Quite near me, young, and brave and wise;
He spoke, but sure I understood
Less from his words than from his eyes.

I saw nor stream nor clasping vine;
I heard no more the mourning dove;
For I was his, and he was mine—
When heaven did bless our steadfast love;

And heaven did bless our steadfast love;
And side by side in joy and care,
With hand, and head, and heart, we strove
To work, to learn, to cheer, to bear.

Tho' sunless now my Edward's eyes,
They keep a kindly glance for me;
In being found, I found a prize
Beneath that vine and ashen tree.

We've known the love begot by joy—
We've known the love from sorrow born—
We know the hope that brighter grows,
As things of time get overworn.

My only wish is, if it please
The One who made us—that we be
Like apples in the farmer's hand,
Both ripe at once—drop from the tree!

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT.—March 21.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE.

The case of the State vs John Lipscomb, was disposed of, the District Attorney entering a nol pros.

There are several parties in jail waiting an examination, but none were brought down yesterday.

THE LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Our course, of this winter, is winding up in great success. Two Lectures from Horace Mann and one from James Russell Lowell will close the course, and we predict overflowing houses. Mr. Mann's style, as a lecturer, is already known to our lecture-goers and his downright, straight-ahead, Saxon sentences are particularly to the taste of "Badger's." We advise all who wish to hear him, to go to-night, for to-morrow, to hear his lecture on "Woman," the audience will be larger than the Hall will hold.

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT.—The Concert of the Musical Society at Young's Hall, Tuesday evening, drew, as usual, a full house and gave more than the usual satisfaction. All the pieces, vocal and instrumental, were well performed, and the Overture to Fra Diavolo given with so much spirit and effect that it elicited a very hearty encore. There were two serious drawbacks, however, to the enjoyment of the audience. The Hall was insufficiently warmed and dimly lighted, and neither omission excusable.

HANDSOME WHEAT.—A load of 40 bushels of white Winter Wheat, raised by C. D. Gage, of Fond du Lac County, was bought yesterday by Patrick Mallon, for D. Newhall, Esq., for $1,50 per bushel. It was as handsome a sample of Wheat as we have seen this season, and the seller said that he had 100 bushels more of the same sort to bring to market.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. B. P. PECKHAM, agent of the American Express Company in this city, for the St. Louis Republican of Tuesday morning, received here last evening, in advance of the mail.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Thirty feet on Main street between Wisconsin and Michigan, was sold a day or two since for $3,500, bought about a year since for $2,600.

☞ We would call the attention of our merchants to the advertisement of Thos Faye & Co., salers in Paper Hangings, New York. It is one of the oldest firms in that line of business in the country, and has done more than any other to bring the manufacture of elegant Paper Hangings to perfection.

☞ The Steamer Traveller arrived from Chicago, yesterday afternoon, with a fair load of passengers, and went north to Sheboygan. She returns and leaves here this morning for Chicago from Kellogg & Strong's Pier.

TO BUILDERS.—The attention of Builders is directed to the notice, in our advertising columns, inviting proposals for building WAYLAND UNIVERSITY, at Beaver Dam, Dodge County.

☞ Rooney's sale of fine Jewelry attracts many customers; those wishing to buy must call soon, as the stock is going off fast.

DELAVAN NURSERY.—Persons in want of choice standard and Dwarf Fruit Trees, Vines, Shrubs, &c., already acclimated, are referred to the advertisement of Dr. GASTON, at the well-known Delavan Nursery, in Walworth County.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday of last week while Mr. and Mrs. Harter of this town were temporarily absent from the house, one of their children—a daughter of twenty months old, got to her mouth the spout of the tea kettle and drank of the boiling water. The Report of the Investigating Committee on the Lunatic Asylum was submitted (not read) and 2,000 copies ordered printed.

In Assembly, Mr. Colley moved to reconsider the vote of Saturday passing a bill relative to recording town plats, and to table the motion. Carried, the mover stating that he had received information to the effect that there was something wrong about the bill.

Mr. Ellis made his unanimity Report from the Judiciary Committee, on the subject of the law relating to the use of the jails of the state, in Fugitive Slave cases. The principal point urged in the Report is that such a law is unnecessary, since the Courts have decided the Fugitive Slave Law is unconstitutional.

Mr. Colley, from the Printing Committee, reported against contracting the compilation of the Statutes of the state by Wm R. Smith.

And then followed the Report of the Joint Select Committee on the State Lunatic Asylum read by Mr. P. H. Smith in his place. I have already sent a brief abstract of it, and, as we shall have it printed in some of the papers to-morrow, in all probability, I omit wrong out the very many notes which I have taken. The Report was listened to very attentively by the members and by many who filled the gallery, and when the reading was concluded, there was not, I truly believe, one man in the House who were not ready to vote for the bill reported by the Committee, which provides for wiping the whole thing from the State's book at once. Probably it would be well to have Gen. Smith write the History of the State Lunatic Asylum, and argue the Commissioners' side of the question.

The Report is a very able and interesting one, and it will be, and ought to be, carefully read through by every voter in the State.

The minority Report was a bit free compilation of the argument of one of Mr. Proudfit's counsel.

The Temperance Bill as amended by the Senate, was taken up and read.

Mr. P. H. Smith moved to strike out sec. 10, relating to search and seizure.

In support of the motion he said that the constituency he had the honor to represent, had voted largely in favor of a prohibitory law, and that he was anxious to carry out their views upon this, as well as all other proper subjects of legislation. That when the bill was in the House, for the first time, he voted against the same, on its final passing, for reasons that were then, & yet and well known to all. The Bill has come back from the Senate, entirely remodelled and in the substitute much more respectable point to the King's English, than in the bill sent to them by this House. As the Bill first passed the Assembly, many portions of it were vague, indefinite and unreliable. He further stated that he made this motion in good faith, in order that the bill might be stripped of its worst feature, and made equal and just in its operations. With the bill, as it is, the penalty in one case, would be twenty-five dollars, and in another for the same offence, it might be ten thousand dollars.

He thought it would be much better for the cause of Temperance, if this section of the bill was stricken out, or if it sufficed to remain that it should be materially modified. The motion was lost 26 to 36.

Mr. Woodworth moved to add to the exception in favor of beer, native wine and cider, "any other liquid or liquor manufactured in this state"—lost 21 to 41.

Mr. Marvin moved to amend by providing that liquors seized should be sold to agents, and not destroyed—lost.

The vote was then taken on concurring with the Senate in their substitute, and resulted as follows:

AYES—Abbott, Allen, Adams, Bond, Cary, Colley Cole, Davis, Field, Filer, Gary W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Hollenbeck, Hooper, Howard, Isham Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee, Love, Martin, Meloch, Merrill, Pratt, Randall, Rose, F. H. Smith, Stevens, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Townsend, Tuttle, Viele, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Wherry, White, Sholes—41.

NOES—Barns, Blanchard, Blaizer, Boyd, Dawes, Ebbets, Falvey, Gibb, Goss, Hull, Lewis, Mackenzie, Ramsey, Ribble, Rogan, Schwefel, Scheage B Smith Thompson, VanNorstrand, Vliet, Williston—22.

So the bill is passed. It will be seen that a majority voted for the bill in its present shape who voted against it before.

There was some discussion as to the proper course to be taken relative to printing the Lunatic Asylum Report, and finally the matter was referred to a select committee to inquire as to the time necessary for the printing.

In the afternoon, the amendments of the Senate to the bill for the purchase of Webster's Dictionary for the school districts out of the school library moneys, were concurred in, much to the disgust of Mr. Stevens, who opposed the bill by all parliamentary means.

Mr. McIndoe, from the Railroad Committee, reported against a general railroad law.

BILLS PASSED:

Repealing Chap. 128 local laws of '53, relative to a boom on Menomonee river.

Authorizing school district in Exeter to levy a tax.

Authorizing the Superintendent to furnish blanks to school districts.

Providing for method of paying tax on suits in Circuit Courts.

The bill prohibiting the use of jails in Fugitive Slave cases, came up on its 3d reading. Mr. Hull moved to postpone indefinitely. Lost, 9 to 39; and then followed, on the part of Mr. Hull, supported by the small minority, a series of motions for delay, which kept the Assembly for a long time; the "back bone" of the "Shanghais" rapidly stiffening, and members expressing the determination to sit all night, if it were necessary. Mr. Rose (dem.) took occasion to say that if this body of factious conduct was democracy, then he was no democrat. He did not see the propriety of this delaying the Assembly, on the 3d reading of the bill, when members would have an opportunity to place themselves on record on the final passage. At length, Mr. Gary, at a favorable opportunity, moved the previous question, which was sustained, and the bill was ordered to its 3d reading, by a vote of 42 to 14. Messrs. Gibb, Rogan, Rose, W. R Taylor, VanNorstraud, and Viles, (den-ocrats,) and Mr. Randall (Ind.) voted with the Republicans in favor. The Noes were Messrs. Barns, Bond, Boyd, Falvey, Hollenbeck Hull, Lewis, Martin, Mosewitz, Schwefel, B. Smith, Stevens, Thompson, and White—all democrats, except Mr. Hollenbeck, who in some matters, to use a common term here, is not fully "feathered out;" and Mr. Thompson, who is utterly incomprehensible.

We have had posted on the doors to-day notices to the effect that bills on the Germania and Oshkosh City Banks will be redeemed at par at the Comptroller's Office—a testimony, at the same time, of the good management of that Officer, and of the admirable provisions of the Banking law of our State.

The train due at 1 P. M. is not yet (7½ P. M.) arrived—doubtless fast in the snow-drifts.

Madison, March 20.

To use an expressive phrase, originated with the "Wisconsin Bard" or some one else, "Times aint now as they used to was been,"—and the ordinary routine of state road and ferry bills, Academy charters, and mail route memorials, have given way for more important matters.—Henceforward I must content myself with noting briefly the most important action of the two Houses.

In the Senate this morning, the only debate of any considerable length was upon the bill appropriating money to Rufus King & Co., for the purchase of Supreme Court Reports. The bill under consideration was the substitute reported by Judge Dunn providing for their purchase, the two volumes bringing the cases down to the December term of 1854. The vote on the passage was as follows:

AYES—Adams, Bashford, Bowen, Clement, Gibson, Gill, Giles, Hadley, Harvey, Loy, Paddock, Rolfe, Taylor, West, Worthington—14.

NOES—Dewey, Eldridge, Kelsey, Reymert.

The Senate sub-tituted for the Assembly bill carrying off the appropriation to the State Agricultural Society, a bill postponing the payment of the $3000 till a month later than is provided by the present law.

Mr. Bowen introduced a bill repealing the law which allows of the picking up of a Sheriffs jury to try issues where parties sue the State.

In Assembly, there was a petition from Dellafield praying the Legislature to repudiate the Lunatic Asylum Contract.

Among the bills introduced, was one to repeal the law authorizing the appointment of a State Geologist. Also one increasing and defining the powers of Milwaukee County Court.

A song the Reports was a remarkable one from Mr. Judson, being against the passage of a bill concerning the draining of lands. I mention it as being the first report since the beginning of the session which recognizes the propriety of obeying the Constitutional provision relative to special legislation.

After hearing the report of Mr. Van Nostrand from Select Committee, to the effect that the Lunatic Asylum Committee Report cannot be printed before Monday night next, the Assembly ordered 1000 copies of the State Printer, and 75 copies for each member of the daily papers containing the Report.

The bill prohibiting the use of the jails of this State in Fugitive Slave cases, passed by the following decisive vote:

Ayes; Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bennett, Cary, Chase, Colley, Davis Field, Filer Gary, Gibb, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Hooper, Howard Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee Love, McIlroe, Mosher Pratt, Randall, Rose, Sherman, F. H. Smith, A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Thompson, Townsend, Tuttle, VanNostrand, Viles, Virgin, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitry, White, Williston, Sholes (Speaker)—51.

Noes—Barns, Blanchard, Blaizer, Bond, Boyd, Coles DeWolf, Downs, Ebbets, Falvey, Goss, Hollenbeck, Hull, Jaques Lewis, Martin, Mosewitz, O'Neil, Ramsey, Ribble, Schwefel, B. Smith Stevens, Thompson, Vliet, White. 25.

The Milwaukee and Beloit Railroad Charter, also passed, provides for a Company, with $1,500,000 of Capitol stock, to build a road from Milwaukee to Beloit, via Muskego, Mukwonago, East Troy and Elkhorn. The following are the Directors:

Sewall Smith and A. O. Babcock, East Troy; S. Andrews, A. E. Elmore, Mukwonago; W. F. Harrison, J. D. Reymert, Muskego; J. A. Perry, E. Hibbard, Troy; Levi Lee, C. Wiswell, Elkhorn; E. D. Baker, E. Cramer, Milwaukee; S. G. Ching, L. G. Fisher, Beloit; L. P. Harvey, Shopiere; J. D. Monell, Delavan.

Mr. Gary, from a Select Committee (Messrs. McIndoe and DeWolf with him,) reported on the subject of the incorporation into the 3d volume of the "Documentary History" of General Smith's argument in favor of the Rock River Canal Co.'s claim. The Report dwells with severe animadversion upon the course produced by the historians as unjust to the state, and setting it forth to the world as persisting in refusing to do justice; and concludes with reporting a joint resolution directing the suppression of that portion of the volume. At the earnest remonstrance of Mr. Stevens, the subject went over to another day.

The debates in Committee of the Whole were very interesting. The bill repealing the act of last winter authorizing the State Lunatic Asylum was first on the tapis. After some preliminary motions, Mr. Stevens came in with the remark that members seemed to set as if this was a matter of little importance, and as if they were ready to act without further examination. He wanted time to read the Report, and determine what he should do.

Mr. P. H. Smith said that something ought to be done at once, to save the state further expense. Even taking Mr. Proudfit's last proposition that the state was utterly unable to expend $285,000 for an Asylum. The Commissioners ought not to be continued in office another day.

Mr. Randall said that action ought to be taken at once, so that the bill could have time to go to the Governor and come back before the adjournment. This contract must be repudiated and disavowed. It was proved that it would cost the State $452 000, besides furniture, fencing, preparing the grounds, and salaries of employees.—It would make full $500,000. The people demand that this burden be lifted from their necks.

Mr. Vliet wanted more time. He had been absent and had not heard the report. It was understood that Mr. Proudfit had offered to compromise, and to erect the building for $150,000. The session would probably last 10 days or 2 weeks yet, and 2 or 3 days might be spared.

Mr. Randall said that even under Mr. Proudfit's last proposition, the Asylum would cost over $300,000, and the State could no more stand this than the greater sum.

Mr. Hull felt called upon to say a word on his own behalf, and for the members of the last Legislature who had voted for the Asylum Law, and he appealed to the Chairman (Mr. Colley) and the others who were here last winter, if they had not all voted for it, in direct reference to the Report of the Senate Committee, which placed the expense at $22,300. He had supposed the sum might reach $50,000, and that this sum could be properly expended for the purpose. He would not say how the Commissioners had carried the thing up to such an enormous expense, whether by fraud, incompetence, or negligence, but, however it might be, he would not defend the wrong. He fully indorsed the Committee's Report as to the intentions of the last Legislature.

Mr. Randall expressed his gratification at this honorable testimony to the justice of the Report.

Mr. O'Neill concurred with Mr. Hull as to the intentions of the last Legislature, but he thought that a little time might properly be taken to consider this bill.

After coming into the House from Committee, the rules were suspended, on motion of Mr. Davis, and the bill passed, by the following vote:

AYES—Abbott, Adams, Allen, Bennett, Bond, Boyd, Chase, Cole, Colley, Davis, DeWolf, Downs, Field, Filer, Gary, Gibb, Goodrich, Goodall, W. Grant, Gunn, Harrington, Hollenbeck, Hooper, Howard, Hull, Isham, Judson, Kirkpatrick, Lee, Love, Martin, McIndoe, Merrill, Mosher, O'Neill, Pratt, Ramsey, Randall, Rose, Sherman, F. H. Smith. A. Taylor, W. R. Taylor, Thompson, Townsend, Tuttle, VanNostrand, Viles, Virgin, Wakely, Warren, Welch, Whitry, White, Williston, Sholes (Speaker)—57.

NOES—Barns, Blaizer, Ebbetts, Falvey, Goss, B. Smith—6.

Messrs. Stevens and Vliet were excused from voting, on the plea that they were unable to vote "understandingly," to use a common phrase. A motion to reconsider was made by Mr. Bennett, and lost.

After the transaction of some other business, among which was the striking out of the enacting clause of a bill providing for the continuation of the compilation of the Documentary History by Gen. Smith, and serving a General Rail Road Law the same way,—there came up a matter which caused considerable feeling.

The Commissioners of the State Lunatic Asylum sent in a Communication which charged the Joint Committee of Investigation with wantonly misrepresenting them, and that their Report was a "tissue of falsehoods," with other severe charges and harsh language On its being read, Mr. Hull immediately moved to refer it to the Committee, but Judge Vilas remonstrated against such a reference, and proceeded, in a state of considerable feeling, to urge upon the Assembly that some just disposition should be made of the paper, if it was received at all, and spread upon the Journal. Either the charges of the Commissioners were true, in which case the members of the Joint Committee ought to be expelled from the Legislature; or they were not true, in which case the paper was an insult to the Committee and the Assembly, and a contempt, which should be properly treated.

Mr. P. H. Smith said that if the gentleman from Dane had had as much to do with the Commissioners as he had, he would not easily become excited by any such charges. Those Commissioners, as one instance, had in their official Report, under their official oaths, declared that they had an estimate made by a competent architect of the cost of the Asylum building, at $67,743, and yet, severally being sworn, testified that they had no such estimate made. Persons who stood in that position were not likely to disturb the feelings of the Committee. The Committee were unanimous as to the facts stated in the Report, though Messrs. Goss and Howell differed from the rest as to the binding character of the contract.

Mr. Goss said that there could be but one opinion among the Committee as to the general statements and scope of the Report. He did not wish, by his vote of this morning against repealing the law of last winter, to be understood as apologizing for the Commissioners. He did not find against them charges of fraud, but their own testimony showed incompetency, impudence and inconsiderateness.

Mr. Stevens moved to adjourn, saying that he hoped the House would act coolly. He had seen for some time past that the members acted under excitement when the names of certain persons were mentioned here. The motion failed by a large vote.

Mr. Gary said that the communication was unworthy of consideration—that it was, only differing in tone in, another attempt at delay, so many of which had already been made during the session. The charges against the Committee were of the same nature as had been made on a former occasion, and had been utterly denied and refuted by each member of the committee, rising in his place. If the Commissioners desire any favor of the House, they know enough to send a respectful communication. He hoped the question would be taken on receiving the paper.

The Speaker put the question—"Shall the communication be received," and, for a space, a dead silence reigned—not a man voting Aye, while the Noes were full and emphatic, all over the House.

And so the Assembly adjourned, members feeling and expressing, in their various modes of expressing—Quem Deus vult perdere, prius dementat.

Annexation of Russian America—Perhaps.

A singular piece of diplomatic news appears in the London papers, received by the Pacific under the head of telegraphic advice from Vienna, respecting the Russian Possessions in North America. It is to this effect:

VIENNA, Saturday 9 A. M.

According to the local papers, the Russian General Manauroff, who has recently arrived at Brussels, is the bearer of the cession of the Russian Possessions in North America to the United States for $30,000,000.

A COMPREHENSIVE RETURN.—Our friends the Post masters in New Hampshire, have generally been very prompt and obliging in returning our circulars, with the blanks for election results properly filled. Yet we must especially praise the succinct and graphic return made by the Postmaster of Exeter. In the ardor of his "phrasing," which we can easily imagine to have been immense, he disdained to express his idea of the terrific rout of his party in paltry numerals, but concentrated the whole in this burning sentence: "EVERYTHING GONE TO THE D——!" Those comprehensive words express everything necessary, and though calculated for the meridian of Exeter, they will answer for several of the adjacent towns.—[Boston Atlas.

BY THE RIVULET.

SECOND VERSION.

I sat me down beside the brook,
Beneath the over-hanging trees,
And said, as some wild flowers I took,
"I'll deck my raven locks with these;

For, haply he may come this way,
Nearer and cooler, too, it is;
Yet if he speaks, what shall I say?
I hope there is no sin in this!"

Just then a timid wood dove flew
With noiseless wing, and in a pool
Dipt its fine neck of changing hue;
Companionless—yet beautiful.

I almost wept to see it so;
But soon 'mong twinkling shadows faint
It rose, and from a stately ash
Pour'd forth a low and sweet complaint.

The grape vine clinging to the tree—
The song of sorrow from the bird—
The streamlet hastening to the sea—
Did so with my poor heart accord,

That ere I heard his steps he stood
Quite near me, eye, young, and brave and wise;
He spoke, but sure I understood
Less from his words than from his eyes.

I saw nor stream nor clinging vine;
I heard no more the mourning dove;
For I was his, and he was mine—
When heaven should sanctify our love.

And heaven did bless our steadfast love;
And side by side in joy and care,
With hand, and head, and heart, we strove
To work, to learn, to chase, to bear.

Tho' sunken now my Edward's eyes,
They keep a kindly glance for me;
In being found, I found a prize
Beneath that vine and sahen tree.

We've known the love from sorrow born—
We know the hope that brighter grows,
As things of time get overworn.

My only wish is, if it please
The One who made us—that we be
Like apples in the farmer's hand,
Both ripe at once—drop from the tree!

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT.—March 21.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, ESQ., POLICE JUSTICE.

The case of the State vs John Lipscomb, was disposed of, the District Attorney entering a nol pros.

There are several parties in jail waiting an examination, but none were brought down yesterday.

THE LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—Our course, of this winter, is winding up in great success. Two Lectures from HORACE MANN and one from JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL will close the course, and we predict overflowing houses. Mr. MANN's style, as a lecturer, is already known to our lecture-goers and his downright, straight-ahead, Saxon sentences are particularly to the taste of "Badger-ia." We advise all who wish to hear him, to go this night, for to-morrow, to hear his lecture on "Woman," the audience will be larger than the Hall will hold.

MUSICAL SOCIETY CONCERT.—The Concert of our Musical Society at Young's Hall, Tuesday evening, drew, as usual, a full house and gave more than the usual satisfaction. All the pieces, vocal and instrumental, were well performed, and the Overture to Fra Diavolo given with so much spirit and effect that it elicited a very hearty encore. There were two serious drawbacks, however, to the enjoyment of the audience. The Hall was insufficiently warmed and dimly lighted, and neither omission excusable.

HANDSOME WHEAT.—A load of 40 bushels of white Winter Wheat, raised by C. D. Gage, of Pond du Lac County, was bought yesterday by Patrick Mallon, for D. Newhall, Esq., for $1,50 per bushel. It was as handsome a sample of Wheat as we have seen this season, and the seller said that he had 100 bushels more of the same sort to bring to market.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. B. P. PECKHAM, Agent of the American Express Company in this City, for the St. Louis Republican of Tuesday morning, received here last evening, in advance of the mail.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Thirty feet on Main Street between Wisconsin and Michigan, was sold one day or two since for $3,500, bought about a year since for $2,600.

☞ We would call the attention of our merchants to the advertisement of Thos Faye & Co., dealers in Paper Hangings, New York. It is one of the oldest firms in that line of business in the country, and has done more than any other to bring the manufacture of elegant Paper Hangings to perfection.

☞ The Steamer Traveller arrived from Chicago, yesterday afternoon, with a fair load of passengers, and went north to Sheboygan. She returns and leaves here this morning for Chicago from Kellogg & Strong's Pier.

TO BUILDERS.—The attention of Builders is directed to the notice, in our advertising columns, inviting proposals for building WAYLAND UNIVERSITY, at Beaver Dam, Dodge County.

☞ Rooney's sale of fine Jewelry attracts many customers; those wishing to buy must call soon, as the stock is going off fast.

DELAPAN NURSERY.—Persons in want of choice standard and Dwarf Fruit Trees, Vines, Shrubs, &c., already acclimated, are referred to the advertisement of Dr. GASTON, at the well-known Delavan Nursery, in Walworth County.

For the Daily Sentinel.

Blundering.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—There is, to my mind, as much difference between letting a house, or hiring one, as there is between the words landlord and tenant—indeed, as much as between selling and purchasing. It is the landlord who leases, or lets the house, and the tenant who hires, or rents it.—Yet, how common here in the West, to see in our papers advertisements like the following:—"FOR RENT—TO RENT, on the part of those who have tenements to let.

But the greatest of all blunders of this character is one you may see in the Wisconsin, as follows: "TO ANY ONE HAVING A HOUSE TO RENT. WANTED TO RENT, a modern built dwelling house" &c. Here the landlord and tenant are confounded, and both the person who has a house to let and the one who is supposed to want to hire, are represented as wanting the same thing under the word RENT—that is to say, the person who lets the house "rents" it, and the person who rents it, also "rents" it!

I know no other excuse (among people who ought to know better) than that which can be tendered by those who spell Milwaukie, Milwaukee, (do not flinch, Messrs. Editors,) and that is the same which was rendered by one of Cromwell's followers, after his appointment of justice of the peace in Ireland, as follows: How do you suppose a man can spell correctly with a quill plucked from an Irish goose?

According to this logic, all of you who spell Milwaukie in the way printed at the head of your papers, I fear have been spelling with quills plucked from Irish geese; and so I will continue to think until you return to the former and only correct way of spelling it.

MILWAUKIE.

INTERESTING FROM MACKINAC.—Through the courtesy of Mr. Saltonstall of this city, we have been shown a letter from Mackinac, dated March 7th, and containing some information of interest to our shipping community. The winter at that point has been very severe; the ice in the lake is now ten to twenty inches thick and not a particle of water is to be seen in the straits as far as the eye can reach. The mail carriers say that there is no water to be seen between Mackinac and Saginaw. This is a poor prospect for early navigation. The weather, however, at the date of the letter, was mild and the ice was thawing a little Provisions were becoming rather scarce, and the letter writer yearned after the flesh pots of Egypt. There is scarcely anything to eat except fish, and every Frenchman in town had Gillis.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday of last week while Mr. and Mrs. Harlow of this town were temporarily absent from the house, one of their children—a daughter of twenty months old, took to her mouth the spout of the tea kettle and drank of the boiling water. The little sufferer died after three hours of most intense agony.—[Waukesha Democrat.

RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE,

OR,

NATURE'S INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC.

FOR the Prevention and Cure of Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, Fever and Ague, Chills and Fever, Bumb Ague, General Debility, Night Sweats, and all other forms of diseases which have a common origin in Malaria or Miasma. This subtle atmospheric poison which so curb in seasons is unavoidably inhaled at every breath, in the same in character wherever it exists,—North, South, East or West,—and will ever yield to this newly discovered antidote, which is claimed to be the greatest discovery in Medicine EVER MADE.

This specific is so harmless that it may be taken by persons of every age, sex or condition, and it will not substitute for one disease others still worse, as is too often the result in the treatment by Quinine, Mercury, Arsenic, and other poisonous or deleterious drugs, not a particle of any of which is admitted into this preparation.

The proprietor declines to claim those extraordinary results from the use of this NATURAL ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

It will entirely protect any resident or traveler even in the most sickly or swampy localities, from any Ague or Bilious disease whatever, or any injury from constantly inhaling Malaria or Miasma.

It will instantly check the Ague in persons who have suffered any length of time, from one day to twenty years, so that they need never have a return of it, by continuing for a few days according to directions.

It will immediately relieve all disordering results of Bilious or Ague diseases, such as general debility, night sweats, &c. The patient at once begins to recover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and rapid cure is effected.

Finally, in use will banish Fever and Ague from families and all causes. Farmers and all laboring men by adopting it as a preventative will be free from Ague or Bilious attacks in that season of the year which, while it is to be most sickly, is the most valuable one to them.

One or two bottles will answer for ordinary cases, some may require more.

Directions printed in German, French and Spanish, accompany each bottle.

Price One Dollar. Liberal discounts made to the trade. Trade circulars forwarded on application, and the article will be furnished on liberal terms to responsible parties in every section of the country.

The Murderers of Poole--Brokers Bit--The New York Police.

NEW YORK, March 20.

The parties implicated in the Poole murder, were examined yesterday by the Coroner and recommitted to await the action of the Grand Jury. They deny participation in the murder. John Turner was too ill to hear an examination. It is thought he will lose his life, if he does not consent to have his arm amputated.

Certain parties in this city who operated on the news by the Northern Light (the San Francisco failures) which was in private hands several hours before it was made public, got badly bitten stocks all going up instead of being depressed.

The Chief of Police, agreeably to the resolution of the Common Council, has reported to that body, showing that more than half the men composing the police force of this city are of foreign birth.

BUFFALO, March 20.

Baker, it is supposed, passed through here on his way to Canada, on Saturday. Rice, negro commedian, recognized him at the hotel in Lewistown, waiting for the Toronto boat. He took a gentleman aside to inform him of his suspicions, when Baker, being alarmed, went out and crossed the bridge into Canada.

CINCINNATI, March 20.

The Probate Court has issued an attachment against the captain of the steamer Bella Cuty, who had 19 slaves on board the boat Sunday evening at the wharf and prevented the Sheriff from examining the boat until the slaves were conveyed in a yawl to the Kentucky shore. Weather very cold. Thermometer only 20 deg. above zero.

ROCHESTER, March 20.

The Coroner's jury in Emma Moore's case rendered a verdict that deceased came to her death by drowning, but whether a voluntary act or otherwise they cannot say from the testimony.

CINCINNATI, March 19, P. M.

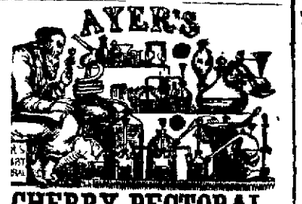
AYER'S



CHERRY PECTORAL,
or the rapid Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AMONG the numerous discoveries Science has made in the present generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyments, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this concentration of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst the strong and, thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe, as a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following, and refer further on query to my American Almanac, which the Agents be supplied, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are all parts, clear, and indisputable proof of these statements

DR J C AYER Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old, has just recovered from a severe attack of pulmonary Bronchitis, which was complicated with Croup and Whooping Cough. He was pronounced by two physicians of this place, and one from Columbia, entirely beyond the reach of medicine. I was induced to try your Cherry Pectoral, as a last resort, and from the first dose I saw a favorable change in the disease. He continued to improve from day to day, and in a few weeks was entirely restored to health. I have given the Pectoral to many others, with the most beneficial results, and have no hesitation in saying that it is the best medicine for Throat and Lung diseases with which I am acquainted.
Yours, with respect, JAMES L ORR

The Jubilee is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and salutary vapor, passing into all the air cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine Here is a case of

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKVILLE, N. Y., Dec. 26th, 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma, for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description, months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty was breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and the little relief I had in search of the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis's Hygeana or Life-Giving Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most severe attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffering for want of breath In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my mouth, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved to a great degree In a few minutes the difficulty of breathing and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now entirely restored to health. I believe the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from My advice to the suffering is,—TRY IT

CONSUMPTION CURED.

New Ross, Dec 27th, 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St John, New Brunswick; when I arrived there my health was very poor, had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter, with it was frequently mixed with blood, had pain in my left side, and was very much emaciated My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a supply, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life—Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, and in a few weeks I felt that I was now considered myself cured, I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthens and purifies my lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it JOHN WILSON

MEDICATED INHALATION!
CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED, AS TREATED BY
DR. E. N. TRIST,
WITH HIS CELEBRATED
HYGEN & OXYGENIC VAPOR!

DR. TRIST, Graduate of the Royal College of Surgeons in London and the Royal Academy of Medicine in Paris, having settled permanently in New York for the practice of his profession, begs leave to suggest to the citizens of the United States that several years of study and successful experiments in England and Scotland, as well as other parts of Europe, with a consumption on all its forms, in all its stages, would warrant, not only relief, but a complete cure in all the above diseases.

Dr TRIST deems it unprofessional to advertise; but in so far having represents, from motives as the originators of the Inhalation, he considers it his duty to say to the afflicted that he alone is entitled to its first introduction, and would caution all against using the useless and dangerous compounds advertised by incompetent persons.

Dr. TRIST would say to those interested that he has had manufactured, for the use of his patients, his celebrated Inhaling Tubes, through which the vapor is conveyed to the parts affected, and which he earnestly commends for the cleansing results which have attended their use, and the fact that they may be used by the most feeble in child with out any unpleasant consequence.

To those residing out of the City, Dr Trist will forward one of the Inhaling Tubes, together with a package of the Vapor, sufficient to last the three months, and with ample directions for use, on receipt of a letter containing Two Dollars, and describing symptoms.

A cure is warranted in all stages of Consumption, Bronchial Asthma, and all other affections of the Throat, Lungs, and Air Passages. In case of failure, the money will be returned
